WELCOME SPEECH FOR MY COUSINS

Welcome to all of you. I'm so glad that you're all here so we can discover together who killed our parents and grandfather. For those of you who may not recognise me straight away: I'm Johnny.

I'm sure I'm not the only one who was deeply traumatised by the events of that dramatic night 15 years ago, causing all of our memories to be repressed. I have invited you here because I hope this place will jog our memories, providing new information for my investigation into the murders. Before we begin, I would like to explain the plan for this weekend.

As a criminologist, I have developed a method focused on building character profiles of both the suspects and the actual killer, based on their character traits.

Remove the profiles from this envelope and put them on the table facing upwards.

Name suspect: Harry Crafton

Traits

Pessimistic		Optimistic
Naïve		Sceptical
Cool-headed		Short-tempered
Selfless		Selfish
Conservative		Progressive

Suspect profile

The only remaining suspects in the police file are the same as what my own investigation suggests. Don't be startled, but they are our own parents: Richard, Patricia, Oliver, Anna, Iris and grandpa Harry. By using your memories of these people we can fill in the suspect profiles.

After we're done, we can compare each suspect profile with that of the killer.

By finding the best match, we will finally be able to uncover the murderer's identity.

Are there any further questions?

Draw Event 3 - Summary and read it out loud.
